Kefauver Sees Odds Favoring Adlai In '56

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said today that "as of now it looks as though Adlai Stevenson had the best chance" of winning the Democratic presidential nomination in 1956.

Stevenson, former governor of Illinois, won the nomination two years ago after Kefauver led in the early balloting at the party convention.

While Kefauver said Stevenson seems to have the best chance of capturing the nomination in 1956, he added in an interview that it isn't possible to say what the situation will be two years from now.

He said Stevenson would have "some difficulties" to overcome, such as being out of office and lacking a forum for the expression of his views.

Kefauver himself is not a candidate for president in 1956, he said, and has no plans to be one. He added, however, that "I don't think one can ever say with finality what may happen in the future."

Dies Of Injuries

LANCASTER, Nov. 26 (AP)—Walter Z. Zimmerman, 17, died today of injuries suffered when he fell into the beater blades of a manure spreader on his parents' farm near New Holland.

The first depositor at the Peoples Bank was a wealthy widow, Mrs. Vela Mae Reynolds, who lost more than $23,000 when the privately operated Clio Merchants Exchange collapsed after President Royal Reynolds disappeared March 7.

Mrs. Reynolds, an aunt of the former money-handler, opened her account in the new government-insured bank with a deposit of $10,000 and expressed complete faith in the new institution.

Her nephew took all of the cash in the old Merchants Exchange with him when he left Clio un-

Eaton, Dengler Play Solos On Nationally Telecast Show

TWO POCONO MOUNTAINS jazzmen made a one-shot guest appearance on the Perry Como Show last night.

The musicians were John Dengler, trumpet, and John Eaton, piano. They were members of "The Tigertown Five," a jazz combo from Princeton University.

Como's show, which is broadcast across the nation on the CBS network (Channels 2 or 10 in this area), opened with its usual format. Como sang "Mister Sandman" and "Hold My Hand."

Introducing the jazz group, Como reminded his audience that "from time to time we have vocal groups and instrumentalists from colleges on this show." He went on to introduce the "fine group of boys" from Princeton and their leader, Stan Rubin.

The combo hit a solid beat under Como's final words of introduction, playing "The Beale Street Blues."

While the music was played the CBS cameras gave local audiences a couple of good, full-screen close-ups of the two Johns. First to get the up-close treatment was Eaton, whose piano solo came near the beginning of the free-riding arrangement.

Dengler's trumpet solo also merited a close-up. Como, in announcing the appearance, noted that the group "stopped off here" on its way to Carnegie Hall.

"The Tigertown Five" will appear in a two-band jazz concert at midnight tonight at Carnegie. A third New York appearance by the band will be made Sunday afternoon at Child's Paramount restaurant in Times Square, biggest cafe-hall devoted to jazz in that city.

By letting North Korea go this time, they would win a world of good will from other parts of the world. It is where the Communists should start first to prove what they say about coexistence.

Pyun has come from Seoul for the debate in the U.N. Assembly's Political Committee on the Korean question, starting next week.

Pyun referred to recent public statements by Soviet Premier Malenkov and other Red leaders about a necessity for coexistence between the Communist and non-Communist world, and said:

"If you want to substantiate their talk of coexistence, they could easily do so by letting the Korean nation achieve unification in a democratic way. If they would go that far, their propaganda for coexistence would not sound hollow."

He said that he had again in testimony he did not see Chambers after Jan. 1, 1937.

The first trial in 1949 resulted in a hung jury. At a second trial ending Jan. 31, 1950, he was convicted on both counts. He surrendered on March 22, 1951, to begin serving his term.

The prison grapevine is buzzing about the release of Hiss, Charles Fawcett, Richmond, Va., discharged from the prison Wednesday after serving 27 months for taking a stolen automobile across state lines, said Hiss was "one of the most respected fellows in the prison."

As far as I know, he got along with the boys," Fawcett told a newsman. "They know he's getting out and there's no resentment that I've seen."

Lane, as Hiss' lawyer, predicts that the one-time secretary general of the founding conference of the United Nations, will try to vindicate himself and "to expose the frameup against him."

"I'll keep trying to prove his innocence but at the moment, I don't feel too encouraged," he said recently. "Still I'm continually expecting a break."

Hiss' brother, Donald, said Alger is coming out of jail broke. Mrs. Hiss has been working in a New York bookstore to support herself and their son, Tony.

Until March 21, 1956 Hiss must report at least once a month to a probation officer. He will have to tell where he's living, where he's working, how much he's earning, whom he's seeing.

State Senate Control Is Still In Doubt

Partial Vote Recount Cuts Margin To 41

BEDFORD, Pa., Nov. 26 (AP)—In complete returns from the official recount board of Bedford County today whittled the lead of J. Irving Whalley, Republican state senatorial candidate, to 41 votes.

Outcome of the recount in the 26th district will determine control of the State Senate next year.

Official returns from the district—comprising Bedford, Somerset, and Fulton counties, showed Whalley the winner by 63 votes over Joseph N. Cascio, a Democrat.

The incomplete returns by the recount board in Bedford County chalked up a net gain of 22 votes for Cascio. The gain was in the borough of Everett where some ballots had been thrown out by the local election board Nov. 2 for irregularities such as marking candidate squares with ink or crayon, instead of pencil.

The official recount board reinstated 25 ballots. Whalley gained three votes and Cascio 22.

If Whalley wins finally the GOP will have a 26-24 majority in the Senate. However, if Cascio wins, the Senate would be split 25-25. Sen. John J. Miller, a Republican of Beaver County, has promised to vote with the Democrats and, in case of a tie, his vote would allow the Democrats to control the Senate. They already have won working control of the House.

There are 121 precincts in the three-county district. Only 13, all in Bedford County, have been rechecked.

Meanwhile, Judge W. C. Sheely of Gettysburg said the official recount in Fulton County will be held Dec. 2.

He said the count will be made in the Fulton County Courthouse at McConnellsburg. The recount in Somerset County is expected to begin late next week.

son. They will motor to their New York home, probably accompanied by Hiss' lawyer, Chester Lane.

Wilkinson said Hiss' release will follow normal routine. Hiss will be freed at the prison and he checked out by several departments, including the commissary and the library. Then he will be escorted through two big gates into the open. He is expected to be released between 8:30 and 9 a.m. EST.

Hiss was indicted on two charges, that he lied to a federal grand jury when he denied that he passed government secrets to Whittaker Chambers, who says he was a courier for a prewar spy ring, and that he lied again in testifying he did not see Chambers after Jan. 1, 1937.

The question of claims by American citizens against the Austrian government stemming from the Nazi occupation of Austria was discussed. "It was agreed that a prompt and just settlement of these claims should be sought."

Driver Closes Eyes, Vehicle Strikes Tree

SNYDERSVILLE — A Wilkes-Barre driver told police he closed his eyes for a moment and ran off the road 50 feet east of the Routes 206 and 12 intersection here at 7:35 a.m. yesterday.

A passenger in the car suffered minor injuries. The right side of the vehicle was demolished, Stroudsburg State police said.

Driver of the car was Russell Watkins, 22, of Madison St., Wilkes-Barre, police said. Carl Carlson, 22, same address, suffered forehead cuts and a cut on the eye, the report said. Carlson was treated at General Hospital.

Watkins told police he was driving toward Stroudsburg and "closed his eyes momentarily" after passing the Snyder'sville intersection. His car ran off the road and hit a tree, police said.

The 1953 model sedan was towed from the scene. No charges were filed in the accident.

Austrian Head Seeks End To Occupation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—A treaty ending the occupation of Austria at "an early and fixed date" was the goal set in a communique issued today on the talks between Austrian Chancellor Julius Raab and top U. S. officials.

For his part, the United States, Britain and France to conclude such a treaty at the Berlin conference last February were blocked by the Russians, who insisted on arrangements to keep Soviet troops in Austria.

Raab, who conferred with President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles and other officials during a state visit here this week, was in Miami today on the start of an American tour.

During a side trip to Key West, Raab expressed hope for an early meeting of the Big Four powers at which the No. 1 problem would be withdrawal of occupation forces from Austria.

Asked if he thought it would be possible to restore independence to Austria in the near future he replied: "In politics we must be very patient."

A joint communique issued at the State Department said:

"The prospects for a treaty for Austria were reviewed and it was agreed that both governments would continue to work together to work together for a state treaty which would provide for the withdrawal of all occupation troops from Austria at an early and fixed date."

The communique reported that plans are now under consideration by the U. S. Defense Department to release housing requisitioned for American occupation authorities in Austria.

"The question of claims by American citizens against the Austrian government stemming from the Nazi occupation of Austria was discussed. "It was agreed that a prompt and just settlement of these claims should be sought."

Murder Suspect Described As Mental Case

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 (AP)—Allen Bodine Scott, sought in connection with the brutal slaying of his grandmother last July, was a former psychiatric patient of the slain Dr. Elinor Marjorie Langton, investigators said today.

The 29-year-old Scott is a fugitive from an indictment charging him with the murder of his grandmother, Ellen A. Scott, with whom he lived at Lower Bank, N. J. Delaware County Dist. Atty. Raymond R. Start, disclosed that Scott's name cropped up among those of the many other patients of the 52-year-old woman physician treated for mental disorders.

Dr. Langton's body was found last Saturday in her automobile. Circumstances surrounding her killing have led police to believe she may have been slain by a former patient. Dr. Langton was employed by the Veterans Administration's mental hygiene clinic here.

This phase of the case was expedited today when the confidential case histories of all VA patients treated by Dr. Langton were opened for the first time by police. Start said that Scott was treated by Dr. Langton either at the Pennsylvania hospital neurological clinic or at the Veterans Administration clinic.

"We are throwing all our investigators into the Scott angle," Start said. "We are going after this vigorously."

New Jersey state police of the Hammonton barracks said that Scott had never served in the armed forces, thus eliminating any treatment in the VA clinic.

Fire Sweeps Korean Depot

PUSAN, Korea, Saturday, Nov. 27 (AP)—A five-hour fire leveled three fourths of the U. S. Army's biggest Korean supply depot today. Three U. S. soldiers were reported injured while fighting the wind-fanned flames.

More than two score Korean houses were burned down. Others were knocked down by bulldozers carrying out a fire ring.

Thousands of Koreans fled in panic with their belongings, remembering that a year ago today a huge fire in this southeast Korean port city wiped out 7,000 houses and left 25,000 homeless.

The fire which broke out at 9 p.m. Friday in a carpenter shop spread swiftly to warehouses of the giant 5th Quartermaster Base Depot.

A 200-man force of U. S. servicemen and Koreans played water from 50 hoses on the flames and kept the flames from spreading to the wharf, stacked with petroleum.

As yet untold thousands of dollars worth of clothing, food and supplies went up in smoke.

Nobody seemed to know how it started.

Law Prohibits Shooting Within Borough Limits

MOUNT POCONO—Borough Council has announced the state game laws will be strictly enforced in the borough during the remainder of the hunting season.

Police officers will be patrolling constantly in the future in order to maintain the laws in that section, a council spokesman said.

Hunters are advised that discharge of firearms within the borough is prohibited by law. It is also unlawful to shoot at game on a highway or across a highway or within 150 yards of all occupied buildings without the occupant's permission.

AN ESTIMATED $500 damage was caused to a 1950 model sedan when it ran off Route 190 one mile north of East Stroudsburg and overturned at 12:30 a.m. yesterday.

Stroudsburg State police identified the driver as James Harmon, 25, of N. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

His report said Harmon told them his car ran off the road on the right side and turned over. The right side and top of the car were damaged, police said.

The car was towed to a Stroudsburg garage. No charges were filed.

Mayberry Held In $5,000 Bail

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 (AP)—Clarence Irvin Mayberry, 28, of Pottstown, is being held under $5,000 bail after the FBI charged him with trying, on two occasions, to derail a Reading Co. train.

U. S. Commissioner Henry P. Carr set the bail yesterday after a hearing in which he was told Mayberry said he put a piece of timber on the rails on one occasion and a channel iron on the rails on another. Mayberry was quoted as saying he did it because his fellow workers teased him and he "had pressure on his mind from unpaid bills." The trains were not derailed.

Mayberry was turned over to Montgomery County authorities today. Reading Co. police said they could not say definitely if any mail had been carried on the two trains and therefore couldn't say whether any federal violations in connection with mail transportation were involved.

Leader Family To Remain In York Till June

YORK, Pa., Nov. 26 (AP)—Gov-elect and Mrs. George M. Leader today planned to continue residence in their Dover, York County, home until the end of the school year in June.

"We are working on the assumption that we won't leave our home to take up any state residence until at least after the current school term ends," Mrs. Leader said.

The Leader's 9-year-old son, George Michael Leader II, will finish a session of grammar school in June. Also figuring in the plans is a 5-year-old son attending kindergarten. The Leaders' third child is a 9-month-old daughter.

The future first lady of the commonwealth said she "would like to see the children finish out this year at school without having to transfer them in the middle of the term."

"I guess we will have to move in state residence after June," said Mrs. Leader, but added: "Our home is a nice, but modest one, and not near large enough to accommodate the staff assigned to a governor to handle certain affairs."

Following his Jan. 18 inauguration, the 36-year-old Democratic governor and his wife will be eligible to take up residence in either of two state mansions.

The old executive mansion is located along the Susquehanna River in Harrisburg. A "summer mansion" at Indiantown Gap was the residence of Gov. James H. Duff (now United States senator) and is currently the home of Gov. John S. Fine.

In recent years the downtown Harrisburg mansion has been used only for formal state functions.

The Leaders hinted they, too, would take up residence in the Indiantown Gap mansion.

"Our children are accustomed to being out in the open and running around in dungarees," the incoming governor said. For generations his family has been engaged in agriculture. Leader owns a poultry farm.

Pending the family's final move to one of the executive mansions, Gov.-elect Leader has set up headquarters in the state Democratic Committee Building in Harrisburg. He commutes the 25 miles between his home and the capital city daily.

Burgesses Proclaim S. A. Week

SALVATION ARMY Week will be observed here from Sunday to Dec. 5.

Official recognition of the week-long observance was given yesterday by Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg Burgesses Hal H. Harris and Jesse S. Flory, respectively.

In a proclamation, signed separately by the burgesses, the official designation of the coming week as Salvation Army Week was set aside.

This was the proclamation:

"Whereas: The high spiritual and humanitarian principles of the Salvation Army have long been an important part of American life . . .

"Whereas: Through its welfare and religious institutions in our city and State it has befriended, aided and given new hope to men, women and children regardless of race or creed . . .

"Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim the period of November 28 through December 5 as Salvation Army Week . . . and do urge all citizens to give their full cooperation to this effort to focus attention upon the work that the Salvation Army has been carrying on in the United States for 75 years."

"Its banner and the principles for which it stands are mighty bulwarks against spiritual and physical need and our tribute to this great organization during Salvation Army Week is well earned and greatly merited.

"In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of my office to be affixed this 26th day of November, 1954.

(Signed)

HAL H. HARRIS,
JESSE S. FLORY.

Two Named By Tamiment For Awards

RADIO COMMENTATOR Elmer Davis and wonder-drug discoverer Selman Waksman are winners of the Tamiment Institute book awards for 1954.

The two men will receive their awards—$500 each—at a Tamiment luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York on Jan. 8.

Davis is to receive a special $500 award for his book, "But We Were Born Free." The volume is a series of reflective essays on the nature and extent of American freedoms and attempts which have been made to abridge those freedoms.

"But We Were Born Free" has been on the best-seller lists for more than seven months.

Dr. Waksman is the anti-biotics specialist who discovered streptomycin and carried out experiments pointing the way to its use in the fight against disease.

His book "My Life With the Microbes," describes in detail the long experiments leading up to the discovery of the drug. Waksman is the winner of the regular Tamiment award this year, also for $500.

Last year's winner was Carl Sandburg, leading U.S. poet, historian and biographer whose "Always the Young Strangers" was honored.

The institute was founded 18 years ago. The book awards are intended to honor a work or works that "further the ideals of free culture in determination to resist totalitarianism in whatever guise," officials said.

All ambulatory and convalescent patients as well as staff members are invited to attend.

THE HOSPITAL Committee of the Monroe County Ministerium announced last night that Rev. Roger C. Stimson, pastor of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church will be the speaker at the half-hour devotional service on Sunday from 1:30 to 2 p.m. in the General Hospital.

Wickersham Doubts Russia Has Abandoned Ambitions

VIENNA, Austria, Nov. 26 (AP)—Rep. Victor E. Wickersham (D-Okla.) returning from 25 days in Moscow and other East European capitals, said today he saw nothing behind the Iron Curtain "which led me to believe the Soviet rulers have abandoned their ambition to create and dominate a Communist world."

Wickersham was the congressman who was recently asked by Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov to tell the American people that Russia wants to live in peace and be friends with the United States.

Arriving in Vienna from Moscow, Prague, Bucharest, Warsaw and Budapest, Wickersham said he considered the Soviet Premier a "shrewd, keen operator and a dominating ruler."

The member of the House Armed Services Committee told a news conference: "As far as I can see the present Russian rulers are still following the Lenin-Stalin line. Their talk of coexistence does not indicate any real change in Soviet foreign policy. Their actions speak louder than words."

"I think," said Wickersham, "that the United States must keep its defenses strong and must remain vigilant and wary.

"America, from the standpoint of Russian leaders, still is the Soviet Union's No. 1 enemy. Russia and its satellites have tremendous military strength. My visit confirms to me that the basic principles of our foreign policy are correct and that we should pursue them steadily, consistently and firmly."

"The Soviet government," he said, "is outwardly friendly but it does not believe in coexistence of the kind that the United States would like to see—where everybody can have basic freedoms and limited peace."

"The Soviets dominate the satellites completely and certainly the government leaders have not

Shop Early... Here's Why

- ★ YOU'LL FIND COMPLETE STOCKS OF MERCHANDISE
You can do your Christmas shopping before all the choice items are picked over. Stocks are more complete than for many years due to the fact that merchants started their shopping early and now have full stocks for your selection.
- ★ YOU HAVE TIME TO COMPARE VALUES, SAVE MONEY
Hasty gift buying often brings regret and disappointment. It is much better to shop leisurely when you have time to thoroughly inspect gifts you are buying. You will have more time to compare values if you start your Christmas buying early.
- ★ CLERKS CAN GIVE YOU MORE ATTENTION
Stroudsburg salespeople are prepared for this Christmas Season. They are eager, alert and ready to serve you. They have more time to serve you now than when the last-minute rush is on.
- ★ PRICES ARE RIGHT IN STROUDSBURG
Check the prices in the Stroudsburg Stores. You will find that they are no more expensive than the big city "bargains." In most instances you will find that you can buy at home for less than out of town.
- ★ YOU'LL HAVE TIME FOR CHRISTMAS PREPARATION
For maximum enjoyment of Christmas, we must create the atmosphere. We need to decorate, clean-up, brighten-up, decorate the Christmas Tree, place the lights in the windows, etc. You'll miss the added joy of the season if you put it off too long.

THE NUMBERS ON STATES indicate where principal Senate and House chairmanships and leadership posts are slated to go in the next Congress. The map shows plainly that Texas is in the driver's seat with four including the powerful Senate majority leadership and House speakership. Note that southeastern Dixie states hold most chairmanships. Senators and Representatives from shaded states have none at all, as of now. Chairmanships, acquired via seniority, carry power in the processing of bills.

Deer Hunter Fatally Shot

EAST AURORA, N. Y., Nov. 26 (AP)—William G. Tacchi, 34, was wounded fatally today when hit by a deer slug from a 12-gauge shotgun in the hands of a companion, state police reported.

The companion was identified as William George Clark, 29, of nearby Holland. The incident occurred just south of this Erie County village.

State Police Sgt. Harvey Gregg said Clark reported Tacchi was walking to his right and somewhat behind him when several deer crossed in front of them. He said he fired at the deer twice, then heard Tacchi shout that he had been hit, the officer said.

New Manual Lists Mail Regulations

LOCAL POSTMASTERS have called to the attention of mail users new postal regulations being issued effective December 1 which will provide important changes and simplifications in the use of mail.

The Post Office Department has issued a new Postal Manual of less than 300 pages. It includes the most complete revision of regulations in the history of the post office.

It will allow mail users to keep abreast of all changes in material along with a form of changes. Both will be available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C., at a total cost of $2.65.

The first preliminary edition was issued last October when Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield invited the general public, large mailers and postal employees to suggest constructive revisions.

The new system will give businessmen and other users the easiest and most complete method of keeping completely up to date on postal information that they have ever had.

Easy-to-understand English and simple illustrations for mail preparation feature the new publication. A great deal of obsolete and conflicting material has been eliminated.

The booklet will prove invaluable to householders. It shows how to package fragile materials for mailing, how to attach first-class letters to packages, how wanted stamps may be exchanged for others of different value if desired and other matters of interest.

Mail users may direct any inquiries about special points in the new publication to either post office in Stroudsburg or East Stroudsburg.

Cheerful Garb Urged For Clergy

MERTON, England, Nov. 26 (AP)—Clerical clothing, says a vicar of the Church of England, makes clergymen look "like so many old crows." He wants reform, maybe a snappy but dignified waistcoat with checks.

The vicar is Rev. Denis Large of St. James's church. In an article in his parish magazine, published today, he said:

"The garb of the cleric is probably the most unsightly, comfortless garment that has ever been devised. Must the clergy go about like so many crows creating the impression that religion is a dreary affair associated with funerals and public mourning?"

"At least the cloth might proclaim a clergyman to be a man of good cheer, and I see no theological reason why it should not also proclaim him a man of good taste."

THE UNITED STATES has angrily protested the jailing of 11 American airmen and two U. S. civilians by Communist China on "spy charges." Among the group were these three, Richard Fecteau (left) 27, of Lynn, Mass., one of the two civilian Army employees imprisoned, was sentenced to a 20-year term. Lt. Col. John K. Arnold (center), 41, of Silver Springs, Md., who commanded a B-29 that was shot down while dropping leaflets during the Korean War, received a 10-year term. Lt. Wallace L. Brown (right) of Banks, Ala., drew a four-year term. Four Nationalist Chinese will be executed.

Capon Project Undertaken By Ag Students

STROUDSBURG High School freshmen vocational agriculture students carried out a capon project this week.

According to their instructor, Albert Gross, the boys caponized 300 broad-breasted cockerels at the Norman Courtwright farm, Stroudsburg RD. 2.

The cockerels were a cross-bred bird of Cornish and Barred Rock origins. The birds averaged one and three-quarter pounds live weight.

At marketing time, for the Christmas holiday, the birds should weigh approximately five and one-half pounds, Gross said.

Taking part in the project were Stephen Drake, Arlett Gannon, Herbert Houser, Jim Shafer, Lloyd Schaefer, Charles Gussett and Jack Courtwright.

Young Admits Starting Fire

CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (AP)—A 16-year-old youth has admitted setting a fire in a private girls' school which resulted indirectly in the death of three firemen.

Police Capt. William Hennessy said Phillip Villano made an oral statement that he set the blaze under a stairway in the Loring School for Girls at 10560 Longwood Dr. late Tuesday after ransacking some rooms. Damage to the school was estimated at $10,000.

Two firemen responding to the fire were killed when their vehicle collided with a truck. A third fireman died of a heart attack while fighting the blaze. Several other firemen were injured in the fire.

The first successful beet sugar factory in the United States was in 1879 in California.

THURSDAY'S football game between Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg High Schools was still being replayed yesterday, as fans representing each borough pointed out the good and the bad in the game. East Stroudsburg was well pleased, while Stroudsburg supporters naturally began thinking of next year and the 11th meeting of the arch rivals on the gridiron. Virtually everyone was agreed that the game wasn't nearly as one-sided as the score would indicate.

There were several things that stood out in this writer's mind, which we didn't comment on yesterday. In my mind the most important tackle of the game was applied by Gene Plaza, just when the chips were down. Bob Phillips, playing by far his best game, was trying to circle his own right end from the East Stroudsburg eight yard line for a touchdown that would have put the Mountaineers in front by a 13-12 count. Phillips cut back at the last instant and into a hole in the East Stroudsburg line.

But Plaza raced up from his defensive halfback post and closed the gap with a game saving tackle on the Stroudsburg back. If Phillips would have broken through this hole he certainly would have scored and if Stroudsburg had assumed a 13-12 lead in the late portion of the third stanza it might have been a vastly different contest. The most spectacular tackle of course was the one applied by Burt Kleinle as the Stroudsburg safetyman caught Bob "Red" Kupiszewski from behind on the Stroudsburg five, after he had returned the second half kickoff 75 yards.

Stroudsburg had an edge on sensational catches of passes. Doug Shook made a one-handed grab in the second quarter and Don Hayes picked one out from between two East Stroudsburg defenders in the same period. Kupiszewski threw the two longest passes of the game, one was completed and the other went just beyond the reach of the intended receiver. Kupiszewski's completed pass was the big play in East Stroudsburg's 80-yard march to its third touchdown. The play covered 53 yards.

Ben Jones, assistant football and head basketball coach at Lehigh Valley High, was stationed next to the Stroudsburg High bench throughout the game. Jones is a graduate of Stroudsburg High and of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. The playing surface at Memorial Stadium was in remarkably good shape for the annual Thanksgiving Day tussle despite the all-day rain on Wednesday. There were muddy spots, but for the most part the surface was in good shape.

The Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg contest featured one temperamental upheaval, while the Bangor-Pen Argyl contest the same afternoon had two. I guess they are natural in close rivalries, but they certainly are stupid. Those players who took part in the one at Memorial Stadium Thursday may like to know that they are the first to mar the Thanksgiving Day contest with such behavior. But, I'm glad to say that good fellowship did prevail as usual at the end of the contest.

Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg were both well represented at the Bangor-Pen Argyl encounter. The little "extras" supplied by the game at Memorial Stadium were well received by the huge crowd. The gathering of fans was very pleasing despite threatening and damp weather. The entire first half was played under skies featuring heavy clouds. The sun shone for the hands at halftime and then ducked under the clouds at the beginning of the third period.

Sunshine was spotty through the second half, but gray clouds dominated the situation. The East Stroudsburg band began playing, "Little Brown Jug, I Love Thee," right after the Cavaliers scored their third touchdown and assumed an 18-7 advantage. The East Stroudsburg students thought at this time that they were certain to retain possession of the "Little Brown Jug" for at least one more year. Leslie Bernbaum, junior member of the East Stroudsburg football squad, was left off the pre-game list of players by mistake. Apologies are in order.

The East Stroudsburg band and cheerleaders marched around the business section, while cars and trucks carrying signs and purple and white colors toured both Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg. Horns were honking and kids yelling hours after the game was history. Students home from college, who once played for Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg football teams, were very much in evidence throughout the crowd.

Steelers Sign New Tackle

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 26 (AP)—The National Football League Pittsburgh Steelers today signed Joe Matesic, a defensive tackle.

Matesic, who hails from nearby Rankin, formerly played with Indiana and Arizona State. He is 23.

To make room on the roster, the Steelers placed defensive halfback Ed Kissell on the injured reserve list. Kissell is recovering from an appendectomy.

Two Seniors Lead Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, Nov. 26 (AP)—A pair of talented seniors, fullback Bob Eppelman and guard Carl Beck, were mainly responsible for Gettysburg College's 1954 record of five victories in eight games, the 32nd time in 62 years of intercollegiate football that the Bullets have finished with a winning slate.

Eppelman, a starting fullback since the second contest of his freshman year, led this season's team in rushing with a gain of 322 yards in 67 carries, in scoring with 52 points, and in pass receiving with six catches good for 311 yards. The 5-11, 170-pounder from Gloucester City, N.J., who three weeks ago won the coveted Philadelphia Maxwell Club Award for his play against the University of Delaware, carried the ball 277 times and gained a total of 1,439 yards for an average of five-plus yards during his career at Gettysburg. Appearing in 34 games for the Bullets, the New Jersey speedster scored a total of 102 points.

Just as capable off the gridiron, Eppelman is a Dean's List economics major and a campus leader. He is president of the senior class, vice president of his fraternity, has been named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities, and stars in swimming and track.

Like Eppelman, Beck, a rugged 35-pounder from Pittsburgh, has been a member of the Gettys-

East Stroudsburg High Football Team To Be Guest At National Pro Football League Tilt

EAST STROUDSBURG High School's football team, fresh from its 31-7 victory over Stroudsburg on Thursday, will be the guest of a group of East Stroudsburg people at tomorrow's New York Giants-Cleveland Browns National Professional Football League game at New York's Polo Grounds.

The contest will virtually decide the Eastern Division championship.

All members of the squad who have been notified that they are making the trip are asked to be ready to leave the high school gymnasium at 9:30 a. m.

Cost of the trip will be completely covered, except for meals. Each boy will be asked to pay for the meals.

In addition to the players, the East Stroudsburg coaching staff and several friends of the squad will make the trip.

The trip is being made possible through the hard work and thoughtfulness of Myron Ehrlich, Bernie Clemens and "Chub" Boushell.

An announcement was made prior to the annual Thanksgiving Day contest that the Cavaliers would be presented with the trip regardless of what they did against Stroudsburg.

Kickoff time for the outstanding pro contest is set for 2 p. m.

Navy, Rest Of Football World Raves About Classy Left End

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 (AP)—"Subject" Ronnie Beagle for All-America.

"Navy would like to offer the name of its left end," says the announcement from John T. Cox, Navy's sports information director.

Navy is not the only place where the raves can be heard for this 20-year-old, 186-pound six foot four athlete from Covington, Ky.

Jack Freeman, William & Mary coach, says: "Beagle is a fine football player. He is by far the best defensive end we have run up against. His ability to catch passes makes him a great all-around player."

Tuss McLaughry, Dartmouth coach, says: "Beagle is the best end we have seen. He definitely is All-East and deserves All-America consideration. He is a great pass receiver, a fine blocker and is excellent on defense."

Chuck Taylor, Stanford coach, says: "Beagle definitely is one of the best ends in the country."

Tom Hamilton, Pittsburgh coach, says: "This kid Beagle can do everything. He is the best college end I have seen in a long time."

Steve Sebo, Pennsylvania coach, says: "He definitely is of All-America caliber. We double-teamed him with our best blockers. He stood the test."

Terry Brennan, Notre Dame coach, says: "Ronnie Beagle is the best end we've faced."

Navy coach Eddie Edeletz seconds the motion in spades. "He's terrific," says Edeletz. "He is everything an end should be. Anything you can say about an end, you can say about Beagle. He is a good pass receiver, a good tackle, a good blocker—and a good fellow."

Head coach John Yovislin types Beck as a fine boy and an outstanding player. "He has been a leader for several years," said Yovislin, "and has contributed to Gettysburg by his football playing as well as in many other ways. He has a tremendous desire to be a good player, and is extremely popular with the other players. He has captained the team on several occasions this season."

Jack Shainline, line coach, calls Beck "a line coach's dream." "Gettysburg has had many fine guards," Shainline said, "and Beck rates with the best of them. He is equally adapted for offense or defense and gives it all he's got. Not many fellows were able to run against him. He's a gentleman off the field, but a real rough boy on the field."

Six Bowl Bids On Line Today

By Rip Watson
The Associated Press

SIX INVITATIONS to January 1's rich bowl games will be up for grabs today as college football bows out with a small but select list of traditional games.

The bowl bid atmosphere even extends to the highlights of the day, the Army-Navy clash at Philadelphia before a sellout crowd of 106,000, plus uncounted watchers on the nation's TV sets and listeners on the overseas broadcasts.

Both service academies traditionally are cold to invitations from bowl sponsors, but Sugar Bowl officials still say Navy is under consideration for the New Orleans game. Academy officials have neither confirmed nor denied bowl talk.

But Sugar Bowl officials are quite frank to say Mississippi will be one of their teams Jan. 1—if the Rebels can wrap up the Southeastern Conference title by whipping troublesome Mississippi State, Mississippi, ranked seventh this week in the semifinal Associated Press rankings, was knocked out of the bowls last year when State gained a 7-7 tie. The Rebels' only loss was to Arkansas.

Baylor, No. 9 team in the country, will have two goals in its battle with Rice: A tie with Arkansas as Southwest Conference champion and a Sugar Bowl berth. A Baylor victory would give the Bears a 5-1 conference mark equal to Arkansas' record, but Arkansas gets the Cotton Bowl assignment because of an early season 21-20 squeaker over Baylor.

Arkansas' opponent on Jan. 1 could well be Georgia Tech, a veteran bowl team which closes its season against Georgia, an old, bitter rival. If Mississippi should lose out in the Sugar Bowl scramble, however, Georgia Tech would be a prime candidate to succeed the Rebels, and Mississippi might wind up in the Cotton Bowl.

Other possibilities are West Virginia, No. 12, which closes out against Virginia, still trying to live down its flop in last year's Sugar Bowl; Auburn, No. 15, which meets Alabama, and Kentucky, No. 18, which concluded its season last week with five straight victories after a slow start.

Duke hopes to clinch a spot in the Orange Bowl opposite Nebraska by trouncing old rival North Carolina.

Maryland's tremendous exhibition of power, speed and finesse in a 74-13 humbling of Missouri before a nationwide TV audience Thursday kept the Terrapins, No. 10 team, in the running for the Orange Bowl.

The loser in the Orange Bowl voting automatically becomes a hot prospect for the Gator Bowl, Wichita, which won its first Missouri Valley Conference title Thursday; West Virginia, Auburn, Kentucky and Penn State, No. 19 nationally, are other Gator possibilities.

Stirnweiss To Pilot Binghamton

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—George "Snuffy" Stirnweiss, former New York Yankee infielder, today was named manager of the Yankees' Binghamton farm club in the class "A" Eastern League.

The 35-year-old Stirnweiss, who was the last Yankee to win the American League batting crown, hitting .309 in 1945, replaces Phil Page. Page was shifted to Birmingham of the class "AA" Southern Association to succeed Mayo Smith, new manager of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Davis Earns Title Shot By Gaining Verdict Over Bassett

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Hartford's Teddy "Red Top" Davis earned a title shot at featherweight champion Sandy Saddler tonight by cleverly outboxing punching Percy Bassett of Philadelphia in a 12-round elimination bout between the world's leading contenders. Each weighed 126 pounds, the featherweight limit.

Loser of two of three previous decisions to Bassett, the 31-year-old Connecticut veteran evened the count with his 24-year old rival by scoring a clean-cut, unanimous decision in a nationally telecast bout from Madison Square Garden.

The votes, all for Davis, were: Referee Al Berl and Frank Forbes, each 7-4-1 and Judge Arthur Adala, 8-3-1. The AP had Davis in front, 8-4.

The losingest contender ever to reach a challenger's ranking (his record now is 58-72-2) the poker-faced Davis gave the harder punching Bassett a boxing lesson he'll never forget.

It was all Davis except for the fourth, fifth, sixth, and 11th rounds when Percy's left hooks and swinging rights to head and body slowed Teddy down.

Davis won the votes of all officials for the first three rounds, the seventh, 10th and 12th. Two of the officials gave him the edge in the eighth and ninth. All three called the sixth even.

There were no knockdowns, but it was a brisk fight throughout.

Maranville's Wife Dies

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Helena Maranville, 67, widow of baseball's famed Walter J. "Rabbit" Maranville, died unexpectedly last night.

She collapsed at the home of friends where she had spent the Thanksgiving holiday.

Her husband, who played with the Boston Braves and Pittsburgh Pirates, was voted into baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., shortly after his death last January 6.

Kansas City Names Coaches

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26 (AP)—Two major league veterans, George Sasse and Oscar Melillo, today were named to the coaching staff of the Kansas City Athletics.

The selections were made by Manager Lou Boudreau and announced here by Parke Carroll, business manager.

Sasse, a catcher who spent 22 years in the majors, will be Boudreau's bullpen coach. Melillo, a former infielder, probably will be on the coaching lines.

Army-Navy Game Is 55th In Series Going Back To 1890

THAT ANNUAL service clash, Army versus Navy, scheduled for today at Philadelphia's Municipal stadium, is the 55th in the series and this year pits two of the country's top teams. Army, which has won 28 of the games, has lost but one game this year, the opener, to South Carolina. Navy has been beaten only twice, by Pittsburgh and by Notre Dame, while rolling over William & Mary, Dartmouth, Stanford, Penn. Duke and Columbia. Army won last year's affair, 20 to 7.

Cadets Slight Favorite Over Middies

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 (AP)—Army and Navy, the nation's top offensive football teams, meet tomorrow in a game that figures to be so close and unpredictable that even a scoreless tie wouldn't be too big a surprise.

Off the records, it should be an exciting, free-scoring game between two teams that have averaged better than 30 points a game. But the only certainty is that the teams will play their hearts out before some 105,000 spectators in jam-packed Municipal Stadium.

This colorful spectacle always is a sellout, usually before the season opens, and this year the interest has mounted amazingly as the Cadets and Midshipmen have compiled two of the best records in eastern football.

The fact that the eastern college championship likely will be decided is a matter of minor importance. This is a game of national appeal, heightened by the fact that it will be televised nationally as the NCAA game of the week and broadcast by radio to outlying military and naval installations as well as in the United States.

The kickoff is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. EST but the spectacle starts at noon when the 2,400 greyed members of Army's Corps of Cadets march into the big stadium. The Regiment of Midshipmen, 3,600 strong-hosts for this year's game—will parade in about 20 minutes later. The weather forecast is cloudy and cool, with afternoon temperatures in the 40's.

For the first time since 1923, there's a possibility that the Army-Navy contest may have a bearing on one of the New Year's Day bowl games. Navy has had feelers from the Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl and, while there has been no formal expression, indications are that the attitude at Annapolis is favorable to acceptance. It was learned reliably today that a statement probably will be made right after tomorrow's game. If Navy should win, or even tie, it might be an acceptance.

Army, winner of seven games since its opening loss to South Carolina, is a slight favorite. The odds-makers put the margin at four points. But they're look-alike teams with explosive speed and almost equal records. Navy has won six games and lost two—by margins of a couple of missed points after touchdowns and by a goal-line fumble.

Army is ranked fifth and Navy sixth in the nation in this week's Associated Press poll.

The statistics, admitted fatteners by picking on the same puny opponents, show Army first among the nation's major colleges in total offense and Navy second. On defense Navy is first and Army somewhere down the line. Each team has averaged over 400 yards a game on offense, against four common opponents, Columbia, Dartmouth, Duke and Pennsylvania. Army has scored 190 points to 32 and Navy 185 to 28.

Both coaches are expecting something new from the other side and trying to prepare a few surprises of their own. There's just a possibility that they've worked so hard during the past two weeks figuring how to stop the other side that neither one will break through.

Native Dancer Wins Poll As 'Horse Of Year'

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Native Dancer, Alfred Vanderbilt's Grey Ghost of Sagamore who was retired in August because of a foot injury, was voted "Horse of the Year" today in the 19th annual poll of Triangle Publications racing experts.

The four-year-old Dancer received 19 of the 33 ballots cast by the Morning Telegraph and Daily Racing Form experts.

His closest competition came from the King Ranch's High Gun, with 11 votes. Andy Crevelin's Determine got two votes, William Hells Jr.'s Helioscope, one.

High Gun, owned by Robert J. Kleberg of Texas was the overwhelming choice as three-year-old champion with 23 votes. Kentucky Derby winner Determine had four, and Pimlico Special winner Helioscope had one.

The two-year-old championship went to the Belair Stud's Nashua by a 29-4 bulge over Mrs. Russell A. Firestone's Summer Tan.

Baker, Carter To Meet

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Bob Baker, Pittsburgh heavyweight contender, and Harold Carter, undefeated young Linden, N. J., sensation, will meet in a 10-round event at Madison Square Garden December 17.

Orioles To Receive Three More Yankees

BALTIMORE, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles were reported today due to receive two young infielders and a left-handed pitcher from the New York Yankees farm system as a windup to last week's million-dollar deal.

Informed sources said third baseman Kal Segrist, pitcher Bill Miller and second baseman Don Leyerer were slated for transfer to the Orioles to complete the controversial three-for-nine deal.

Oriole President Clarence W. Miles and Manager-General Manager Paul Richards refused to comment on the report.

Richards and Yankee General Manager George Weiss engineered baseball's biggest player deal when the Orioles sent pitcher Bob Turley and Don Larsen and shortstop Billy Hunter to the Yankees.

In return the Orioles got outfielder Gene Woodling, shortstop Willie Miranda, catcher Hal Smith and Gus Triandos and pitchers Harry Byrd and Jim McDonald. The club officials said at the time of the trade three players in the Yankee system would go to Baltimore at a later date.

Two things were said to be holding up completion of the deal. The Oriole roster already was bulging with the 40-player maximum, and draft of minor league players still lay ahead.

Touchdown Club Honors Sanders

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Touchdown Club of Washington today chose "Red" Sanders of UCLA's undefeated football team as football's coach of the year. He'll be honored at the club's annual awards banquet here January 8.

Club officials said Sanders won the honor by a narrow margin over "Woody" Hayes, coach of the unbeaten Ohio State team.

Perez Captures Flyweight Boxing Championship From Shirai

By Jim Becker

TOKYO, Saturday, Nov. 27 (AP)—Pascual Perez, a tiny terrier from Argentina, bashed world flyweight champion Yoshio Shirai of Japan into dazed submission last night and became the first man from the land of the Pampas ever to wear a world boxing crown.

The little bull-necked battler, with a whirlwind finish, took boxing's smallest title from the Japanese in a vigorous 15-round out-door bout in 55-degree weather.

Perez was outweighted 111½ to 107½ and had a five-inch disadvantage in reach. But he packed the stamina and power.

Perez floored Shirai with a vicious left uppercut in the 12th round and battered him around the ring at will in the last four rounds to overcome a substantial early point lead set up by the heavier, rangier Shirai.

Shirai had no excuses. Thoroughly beaten, he told his American manager when the verdict was announced: "I'm very sorry."

The manager, Dr. Alvin Cahn, said: "Even a champion must lose some time."

The decision was unanimous. U.S. Army Major Jack Sullivan, referee, scored it 146-139 under Japan's point system. Judge Bill Pacheco of Hawaii had it 143-139. Judge Kuniharu Hayashi of Japan had it 146-134, all for Perez. The Associated Press had it 143-140 for Perez.

A rematch was percolating. Cahn said flatly: "There will be a rematch in Tokyo within six months."

Perez said he would fight Shirai again, "any time, any place, anywhere."

"I intend to be a fighting champion, and I'll give everyone a chance at the title." He said this included Leo Espinosa, of the Philippines, rated Shirai's No. 1 challenger before the fight.

The jubilant winner dashed to a ringside microphone right after his hand was raised and shouted to the crowd:

"I won for Peron. I won for my country. I won for Argentina."

Football Group To Present Award

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—The New York Touchdown Club said today its annual award "to the individual who has rendered unusual service to football" would be presented for 1954 to Dana X. Bible, University of Texas athletic director.

One of the nation's leading coaches for 34 years, Bible turned out 14 major college conference champions.

Popular Wrestler Dies Of Leukemia

FLORAL PARK, N. Y., Nov. 26 (AP)—John J. Emerling, known to TV wrestling fans as Bobby Becker, died of leukemia yesterday. He had been hospitalized two weeks.

Bobby Becker, 36, and his brother, George, won more than 125 Australian tag team matches in contests all over the world since 1950.

Stocks Push To New Highs; Montgomery Ward Climbs After Dividend Increase

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—A headlong advance in the stock market today carried prices up strongly toward the old historic peaks of 1929. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $1.29 at $147.50. The average now stands at the highest point since Oct. 11, 1929, when it was $147.90. The historic high for the average occurred on Sept. 3, 1929, when it reached $157.70.

Montgomery Ward made a sensational showing after directors boosted the regular dividend to a $3 annual basis from $2 and increased the year-end extra to $1.75 from $1.50.

The stock sold at 73 1/4, and then trading was halted while members and governors of the New York Stock Exchange sought to bring clamoring buyers and shy sellers together at a price.

It took more than an hour and a quarter to do that, and just before the bell the stock reopened on a block of 20,000 share up 3 1/2 at 76. Afterward it was bid at 75 1/4 and offered for sale at 76 1/4.

The Associated Press 60-stock average in advancing $1.20 at $147.50 was pushed up by new highs in its three components—industrials up $1.90 at $202.30, railroads up $1.10 at $112.50, and utilities up 10 cents at $66.40.

Volume came to 3,010,000 shares, the tenth straight session of three million or better. Yesterday's total was 3,990,000 shares, greatest in nearly four years.

New York Central was the day's most active issue up 1/4 at 25 1/4 on 78,100 shares, including a block of 20,000 shares at 25.

Allegheny Corp., holding company for the Robert R. Young interests who control the New York Central, was second most active up 1/4 at 5 1/4 on 66,600 shares, including a block of 10,000 at 5 1/4.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—The cash position of the Treasury Nov. 22: Balance $7,478,366,233.77; deposits $19,864,789,421.64; withdrawals $26,109,011,156.79; total debt $278,779,618,517.61; gold assets $21,710,094,065.30.

x-Includes $530,211,134.22 debt not subject to statutory limit.

Severe Storm Lashes Shipping

LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)—Watery gales swamped the south of England and the midlands today and seven merchant ships at sea around the British Isles were reported in distress tonight.

Coast guardsmen said it was the worst storm in recent years.

Gale warnings were up in all British sea areas. The danger pinned the 81,000-ton liner Queen Mary to her berth in Southampton.
